DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-28 have been examined. Application 09/853,286 (System and method for aggregating and distributing electronic coupons) has a filing date 05/10/2001.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Narayan (US 2002/0138348).

As per claims 1, 7, 13, 19, 21, 23 and 24, Narayan teaches:

A method for providing a computer-based forum for exchanging electronic coupons, the method comprising:

providing a forum database of a plurality of electronic coupons (see paragraph 172);

transmitting a description of at least one first electronic coupon from the forum to a client computer (see paragraphs 172-191);

receiving by the forum a signal indicative of a client selection of the at least one first electronic coupon (see paragraphs 172-191); and in response to the signal, performing an exchange of electronic coupons, wherein the exchange includes the receipt by the forum from the client computer of data representing a second electronic coupon in trade for the receipt at the client computer of data representing the first electronic coupon (see paragraphs 172-191).

As per claims 2, 8, 14, 20, 22 and 25, Narayan teaches:

The method of Claim 1 further comprising, verifying the validity of the second electronic coupon (see paragraphs 124-135).

As per claims 3, 9, 15 and 26, Narayan teaches:

The method of Claim 2, wherein verifying the validity of the second electronic coupon comprises:

transmitting data related to the second electronic coupon to an issuing server (see paragraphs 124-137);

and receiving a response from said issuing server indicating whether the validity of the second electronic coupon (see paragraphs 124-137).

As per claims 4, 10, 16 and 28, Narayan teaches:

The method of Claim 2, wherein verifying the validity of the second electronic coupon comprises, comparing the second electronic coupon to a valid electronic coupon stored in a coupon database (see paragraphs 124-135).

As per claims 5, 11 and 17, Narayan teaches:

The method of Claim 1, further comprising, removing user data from the second electronic coupon (see paragraphs 77-78).

As per claims 6, 12 and 18, Narayan teaches:

The method of Claim 1, further comprising:

determining whether to exchange the at least one first electronic coupon for the second electronic coupon and if a determination is made to exchange, performing an exchange of electronic coupons, wherein the exchange includes the receipt by the forum of data representing the second electronic coupon in trade for data representing the first electronic coupon (see paragraphs 172-191).
